ATCHEN CLOCK BRINGS ON SPAT

man, His Sister, His Wife and Father-in-Law Take It to Court.

EVEN CAUSES JUDGE TO SMILE

Hour From Afternoon to Forenoon Not to Break Into Siestas.

Jarman's kitchen clock kept e or not was the important which considerable fuss cenafternoon in Judge an charged his wife, Mrs. Ethel an arrived on his father-in-law' rnoon was spent by the attorney he respective parties in presenting torse smiled pleasantly and asked hat the parties desired. Mr. Jarman d that his visiting hours be changfrom the afternoon to the forenoon Wednesdays and Sundays so that would not disturb his children's on naps when he called to take out. Mrs. Jarman consented to It was also agreeable to the art and then the order to show cause dismissed against Mrs. Jarman nd J. A. Baker, her father was warned of to interfere in any way with Jarin when he came to his place to see farman accompanied by his sister, Myrile, left home at 2:30 o'clock ac ording to the kitchen clock, and walksix blocks to the Baker home last nday. When they got back it was 40 o'clock. Jarman declared and so d his sister that they waited outside the Baker home or an hour for Mrs. gman to get their little daughter ady in order that he might take her sdy in order that he might take her t for a walk. Mrs. Jarman denied at her husband walted over 15 hates for her to dress the child. Insental to this dispute three distinct arrels were indulged in by members the family. Mrs. Jarman insulted rile Jarman. Then Jarman insulted wife. This led to an altercation seen Jarman and Baker, the fatheraw, who was the only person reprised by the court.

LATIMER NOW FREE.

L. H. Latimer was granted an inter-entory decree of divorce from his ife, Mrs. Lulu E. Latimer, on the narge of desertion. They were mar-ed at San Rafuel, Cal., on March 12, ed. Latimer said that shortly after-ard they moved to Oakland and there is wife left him. She has refused to we with him since, he testified, al-ough he had repeatedly asked her do so:

GETS MAIDEN NAME.

CATHERMANS PARTED.

fla Catherman convinced Judge rse that her husband Harry D herman has failed to support her she was granted an interlocutory

MAN PINCHES HER.

On account of his cruel treatment to-sard her, Mrs. Ada E. Plessman was given an interlocutory decree of di-torse from John J. Plessman, and the custody of their three children. Be-sides this the court made an order franting her $30 a month alimony and $60 attorney fees. According to her stery, Piessman pinched her and tore her clothing. When she was ill with typhold fever, he refused to get her medical aid. They were married here bec. 25, 1903.

TWO OTHER DECREES.

There were several other important cases on the calendar which went over until next Friday because the Jarman case took up all the time. Judge Morse found time, however, to enter the final decree in the cases of Mabel Irvine against Joseph F. Irvine and Carrie

Delicately formed and gently reared, women will find, in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives or mothers, that the one simple, wholesome remedy which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally, and which may be used with truly beneficial effects, under any conditions, when the system needs a laxative.

is-Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna. It is well known to be a simple combination of the laxative and carminative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic liquids, which are agreeable and refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system when its gentle

Only those who buy the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna can hope to get its beneficial effects, and as a guarantee of the excellence of the remedy, the full name of the company—Galifornia Fig Syrup Go.—is printed on the front of every package, and without it any preparation offered as Syrup of Figs and Slixir of Senna is fraudulent and should be declined. To those who know the quality of this excellent laxative, the offer of any substitute, when Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is called for, is always resented by a transfer of patronage to some first-class drug establishment, where they do not recommend, nor sell false brands, nor imitation remedies. The genuine article may be bought of all reliable druggists everywhere; one size only. Regular price 50 cents per bottle. Get a bottle today to have in the house when needed.

cleansing is desired

Second Ward Chapel to Be Opened Tomorrow

Second ward chapel will be combined with an Easter service in the main auditorium of the chapel Sunday evening, March 27, with a suitable program. The opening exercises will also extend over Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week, and will include a number of interesting and instructive lectures, delivered by prominent elders of the Church. The program for the Easter

R. H. Siddoway.

On Monday evening a stake priest-

Service tomorrow evening is as follows:
Anthem, "Song of the Redeemed"...
Choir
Prayer.

Pray

Wednesday evening, Elder Heber J. Grant will lecture on "Charity," to which the public is cordially invited. Thursday evening Elder John Henry Smith of the quorum of apostles wil deliver an address. There will be ap-propriate music each evening and the public will be made welcome.

HANDCART VETERANS.

A reunion of the handcart veteran of the state will be held in the Fourteenth ward assembly hall Tuesday April 5, at 4:30 in the afternoon, when general handshaking and renewing of old associations and acquaintance ships will be made. All committee men and the members of all rescuparties, and their descendants, and the

Roberts will deliver a lecture on "On-Gospel in Many Dispensations." All in erally are invited to be present. This is the fifty-fourth year since the advent of the first handcart company in vent of the first handcart company in this state, and with each succeeding annual reunion the number of the original veterans becomes smaller, owing to the harvest of the grim reaper. Those who do remain, however, will be welcomed at the reunion, together with their sons and daughters, and old stirring scenes will be re-enacted in memory at least, and in the association of these revered pioneers.

Today's Weather Chart for United States

Forecast for Salt Lake City and in the central valleys.

At Salt Lake the temperature rose icinity: Generally fair, colder with heavy frost tonight; Sunday, fair.

WEATHER SUMMARY. The storm, noted yesterday central ver southern Nevada has increased in over southern Nevada has increased in intensity, and now covers almost the entire Rocky Mountain region. It has caused precipitation in Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, and at many stations on the eastern slope of the Rockies. The temperature also rose at most states east of the Rockies as far east as the Mississippi river.

The temperature is above normal in nearly all states, being especially high lescendants of handcart veterans gen-

At Salt Lake the temperature rose somewhat since yesterday, and rain fell due to the passing of the Nevada storm over this state. The highest temperature was 55 flegrees yesterday afternoon, while the highest during March last year was 60. The highest March temperature since 1874 was 77 degrees. The temperature fell to 38 degrees this morning, while the lowest last year was 19 degrees. the lowest last year was 19 degrees, and the lowest since 1874 was zero. The mean temperature yesterday was 46 degrees which was 2 degrees above the normal for this season. and the lowest since 1874 was zero.
The mean temperature yesterday was 46 degrees which was 2 degrees above the normal for this season.
The year thus far has been unusally warm there being an excess since Jan.

In the same period of the year.

The sun rose at 6:21 a. m. and will set at 6:46 p. m.

The moon set at 7:15 this morning, will rise at 7:53 p. m., and will set again at 7:53 a. m. on Easter Sunday.

PARENTS' CLASSES.

Members of General and Stake Boards To Visit in Ensign Stake.

Members of the general and stake board of parents' classes will visit the classes in the various wards of Ensign stake, Sunday morning, March 27, as Eleventh Ward-May Anderson, Flor-

Twelfth-Thirteenth Ward — Lillie Freeze, Nellie Whitney.
Eighteenth Ward—Zina Y, Card, Rosanmah C, Irvine.
Twentieth Ward—Chara M, Beebe, Ardella Tibby.
Twenty-first Ward—Emma Romney, Sarah E, Stewart.
Twenty-seventh Ward—Ida Smith, Emlly Calderwood.

Pioneer Roofings. Sold, laid and guaranteed by LAMBERT PAPER CO.

MISSIONARY REUNIONS

During conference week the custom ary reunions of saints and elders of the various missionary conferences and branches throughout the Church will be held. In practically every case the reunions will be devoted to sociability, musical and vocal selections and in a number of instances a dance. The folowing are among those scheduled:

Manchester—Fourth ward meeting-house, Monday evening, April 4. Take West Temple or Poplar Grove cars. Birmingham—Barratt hall, Monday, April 4, at 7:30. Scottish—Pioneer stake hall, Tuesday, April 5, at 8 p. m

Cheltenham and Bristol-Ninth ward amusement hall, Tuesday, April 5, 8

Newcastle—Barratt hall, Tuesday, April 5, at 8 p. m. Sheffield-Twelfth-Thirteenth ward, Second South, between Third and Fourth East, Tuesday, April 5, 8:15

California—Twelfth-Thirteenth ward chapel, 365 east Second South, Wednes-day, April 6, at 7:30 p. m.

German—Eighth ward meetinghouse, opposite city and county building. Wednesday, April 6, at 8 p. m.

Leeds—At Twenty-fourth ward meetinghouse, Sixth North and First West streets, Tuesday, April 5 at 8 p. pr.

EIGHTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

Genealogical Society to Give an Entertainment for Founder's Day.

On the evening of April 6 of last year, the auxiliary committee of the Genealogical society gave an entertainment in commemoration of the founding of the Church and a most semjoyable and profitable evening was spent. The Church was organized April 6, 1830, with six members and the program consisted of a review of the history from that time, illustrated by 30 stereopticon views, interspersed with appropriate songs.

On this 6th of April, the eightieth analyses are, the committee will again en-

On this 6th of April, the eightieth anniversary, the committee will again entertain, the guests of honor being the descendants of these first six members. The function takes place at the Social hall, a building already historic in the west, which has been during the last two years the scene of a series of similar gatherings, all celebrating epochs is Church history.

M. I. A. Programs

TWELFTH-THIRTEENTH WARD,

Mrs. Florence G. Smith, Misses Maud Riter, Jean Williams, Bernice Young, Etnel Connelly and Cora Platt.

SEVENTEENTH WARD.

There will be an Easter song service in the Seventeenth ward chapel Sunday evening, at 6:30 o'clock, Missirene Kelly accompanist. The participants are Misses Tillie Flamm, Hazel Cannon, Bessie Westphal, Claribel Gardiner, Bessie Smith, Irene Kelley, Zola, Bagley, Margaret Sumnerhays, Millie Williams, Mesdames Belle Me-Millie Williams, Mesdames Belle Mc-Nitt, Louise Callister, Jessie W. Ray; Messrs. George M. Cannon, Jr., Mel-vin Peterson, Lorenzo Smith, John Aird.

EIGHTEENTH WARD.

Charks kent and a number of his vocal pupils will give an Easter song service sunday at 6:30 p. m. in the Eighteenth ward chapel. Those participating in the program are Misses Myrtle Brown, Alice Colhurst, Maud Kenner, Mona Young, Dot McMillan, Lillian Branning; Messrs Don Priestly, Alvin Keddington, Basil Kent, Gilbert Savage, T. T. Burton, Carl Weenig, with Kent's men's chorus, and a violin solo from G. H. Schuster of the Symphony orchestra,

TWENTIETH WARD.

Dr. James E. Talmage will address the conjoint session of the Y. L. M. I. A. and Y. M. M. I. A. in the Twentieth ward Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock taking as his subject, "He Is Risen," an Easter topic. An appropriate music-al service will also be rendered.

TWENTY-FOURTH WARD. 'Redeemer of Israel," .. Congregation

Easter Thoughts," B. Cecil Gates

Hosanna."

Miss Evangeline Thomas and Choir "He is Risen." Easter cantata.

Mrs. Agnes O. Thomas and Choir "This is the Day."

Choir "The Story of the Crucifixion, Mary at the Tomb, Christ's Resurrection, and Victory Over Death,"

Mrs. Agnes O. Thomas and Choir Conductor

Samuel D. Winter Accompanists, Miss Leah Arnold and Emma Rich.

TWENTY-NINTH WARD.

Mr. John P. Meakin will lecture Sunday evening, March 27, in the Twenty-ninth ward meetinghouse, corner Teath West and Third North, subject, "The Building of a Man." Mr. John C. Lake will sing a solo.

WATERLOO WARD. The joint Mutual program in Water-loo ward Sunday evening will be in the nature of an Easter service. The pro-gram is as follows:

'In Our Redeemer's Name".

Soprano solo.......Lillie Ship; Song of the Redeemed"......Choir

MURRAY FIRST WARD.

MURRAY FIRST WARD.

There will be an Easter song service by pupils of Hugh W. Dougall, Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Murray First ward meetinghouse; Miss Virginia Smith accompanist, Vaughn Clayton, violinist, The other participants are Misses Ivy Evans, Parthenia Stringham, Winifred Smith, Louise Hagman, Mignon Denhalter, Ida Morris, Meri Miller; Messrs, Rulon Robinson, Arthur Bolton, W. L. Sutherland, C. H. Bennion, Jesse Rupp; and the ward choir.

FOREST DALE WARD.

Mathonihah Thomas will address the conjoint session of the Y. L. M. I. A. and Y. M. M. I. A. Sunday evening. Other features of the program will be solos by John W. Summerhays and Mabel Reed.

Sale of Silk Effect Dress Goods

Excellent Qualities, Regular 65c a Yard, Commencing Monday 48c Yard.

Our entire line of these beautiful Silk Effect Dress Goods, that are so popular, placed on sale Monday. Absolutely no reservations—mysotis, jacquelin, Arabian, runchunda, tub tussah, and all of our Rogers & Thompson's aereo rough silk, crinkled silk and silk striped crepe. Splendid values at 65c a yard while they last, commencing Monday, a yard .

Authentic Showing of New Style Models.

The variety and completeness of the styles shown in our ready-to-wear department proclaim it Salt Lake's pre-eminent fashion center -suits, coats, dresses, waists, kimonos, dressing sacques, children's coats and dresses are shown in elegant profusion.

Coat Suits attractively modeled for the woman and the miss-splendidly tailored in newest styles and most desirable fabrics ranging in price from $15 to $75

Charming Spring Millinery

We are showing the prettiest effects imaginable in every conceivable style and shape in all the fashionable effects. If you have not already > visited us you have missed a genuine treat—come Monday or during the week. Whether you intend purchasing or not we will be glad to show you the styles.

